The steamer Saratoga, which reached this port during the day from Havana, brought $500,000 gold, assigned to Muller, Schail & Co. The recent receipts of gold from Cuba at this port have been very heavy. It is believed that it is sent by the wealthy Cubans or Spaniards living there who are anxious, to get their hard cash out of harm's way, no matter which side comes out victorious in the struggle there.

WHEAT MARKET NERVOUS.

Easily Under All Kinds of News.

On 'Change, Thursday, Nov. 19. The wheat market was weak, nervous and irregular to-day, and the volume of speculation was small. New York prices Longest Auction Ever Held pened at an advance of 16@%c., with Deeember quoted at 87%c, and 87%c, in dif-ferent parts of the pit. The gain was ecause of higher first cables from Liverool, Second cables came lower, however, indicating a weak market, and prices here There Were One Hundred and immediately began to decline. Foreign louses began to sell, thus increasing the declining tendency, which was further helped by a small amount of profit taking.
Covering by shorts then gave the market a sharp up turn, and a number of stop orders were executed on the advance.
